Fiftieth meeting of the Presiding Officers of the Regional Conference on Women in Latin America and the Caribbean

Santiago, 19-20 May 2014

ANNOTATED PROVISIONAL AGENDA

A. BACKGROUND

The Regional Conference on Women in Latin America and the Caribbean is a subsidiary body of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC) that brings together Government representatives to monitor compliance with international and regional agreements on gender equality and promote the gender perspective in regional policies.

In consultation with the Government of the Dominican Republic, in its capacity as Chair of the Presiding Officers elected at the twelfth session of the Regional Conference on Women in Latin America and the Caribbean, held in Santo Domingo in October 2013, the Presiding Officers agreed to hold their fiftieth meeting in Santiago on 19 and 20 May 2014.

At this meeting, the Presiding Officers will consider the activities conducted since the twelfth session of the Regional Conference on Women in Latin America and the Caribbean. Representatives of the ECLAC secretariat and national machineries for the advancement of women will report on their participation in meetings that have special relevance for the Presiding Officers. The Presiding Officers will also discuss the implementation of the Santo Domingo Consensus along with other initiatives of interest, such as the Millennium Development Goals, the population and development policies and the adoption of a post-2015 development agenda.

B. ANNOTATIONS TO THE PROVISIONAL AGENDA
