

AGENDA

Workshop "Negotiating trade agreements for the 21st century: The case of the Trans Pacific Partnership Agreement"

DAY 1 – Monday 26 March

10:00 Opening remarks

- H.E. Virginia Greville, Ambassador of Australia to Chile
- Mr. Osvaldo Rosales, Director, International Trade and Integration Division, ECLAC
- Mr. Andrew Stoler, former Director, Institute for International Trade, University of Adelaide

I. Setting the scene

10:30 The changing environment of trade negotiations in Latin America (Presentation by Osvaldo Rosales followed by discussion)

11:30 From the P4 to the TPP: History and state of play (Todd Mercer, DFAT)

12:15 Discussion

II. Selected topics from the current negotiating agenda

15:00 Trade in services (Steven Deady, former trade negotiator at DFAT)

15:40 Discussion

16:40 Competition policy (Todd Mercer, DFAT)

17:20 Discussion

DAY 2 - Tuesday 27 March

9:30 Investment (Cathy Raper, DFAT)

10:15 Discussion

11:20 Regulatory coherence (Todd Mercer, DFAT)

12:00 Discussion

15:00 Trade and Labor (Pablo Lazo, DIRECON, Chile)

15:45 Discussion

16:45 Trade and Environment (Cathy Raper, DFAT)

17:20 Discussion

18:30 Reception for all participants hosted by the Ambassador of Australia at her residence (Américo Vespucio Norte 2325, Vitacura)

DAY 3 - Wednesday 28 March

9:30 Intellectual Property (Cathy Raper, DFAT)

10:15 Discussion

III. Cross-cutting issues

11:20 Revisiting the rationale for FTAs in Latin America (Sebastián Herreros, ECLAC)

12:00 Discussion

13:00 Lunch

15:00 Institutional challenges of the TPP process (Andrew Stoler, former Director, IIT)

15:45 Discussion

16:45 Roundtable: Strategic implications of the TPP process for economic integration initiatives in Asia Pacific, Latin America and the WTO (ECLAC, IIT, DFAT).