

UNITED NATIONS

ECLAC

Exploring the use of Digital Currency in the Caribbean

WHAT ARE THE TAKE-HOME MESSAGES?

- Policy makers need to become familiar with the issues surrounding digital currency, so they can respond to its emergence in a proactive, not reactive, manner.
- Policy makers should consider how to encourage the innovation made possible by the development of this technology, while mitigating the risks by making judicious use of banking regulations and law-enforcement tools that already exist.

ECLAC Subregional Headquarters for the Caribbean,
1 Chancery Lane, P.O. Box 1113,
Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, West Indies

www.eclacpos.org

Telephone: +1.868.224.8000
E-mail: registry@eclacpos.org